

Worthington Owners Association Newsletter

June 2018

Volume 18 Number 2

The Worthington Owners Association (WOA) is a lot owners' association as opposed to a homeowners' association. The development started with many vacant lots which have had homes been built on them over the years.

An Owners' Association is run by a board of directors who are elected annually by lot owners to oversee the common assets of a property/area, manage its finances, run business affairs, set and enforce rules as specified in the covenants and addenda.

Reminder—WOA Annual dues are always due no later than March 15 yearly

Pick up newspapers, phone books, etc. from driveways. Put trash bins out after 6 pm on Wed & always return day of trash pickup

Current officers for 2018 and contact info are as follows:
